To Whom It May Concern:

Yanxin Lu joined the Ph.D program in the Department of Computer Science at Rice University in the Fall of 2012. He is a student in good standing who successfully defended his Doctoral Thesis on Nov. 19, 2018.

He will graduate from the Computer Science program and confer his PhD degree this Summer 2019. As of this Fall 2018 term he has satisfied all the requirements for the CS PhD degree aside from submitting his final thesis this Spring 19.

If there are any questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,
